FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

"Low" Mass or "High" Mass?

At my first parish, Immaculate Heart of Mary Parish in Scarsdale, New York, we had the services of a wonderful priest by the name of Msgr. William B. Smith. Msgr. Smith was a professor at the seminary in Yonkers and on Sundays he would come to Immaculate Heart to say Mass for us.

Msgr. Smith was so popular that people would call the rectory and ask what time he was saying Mass. Sometimes they would call late at night! One evening, a lady called and the pastor, Msgr. Ed Connors, picked up the phone. The lady asked, "Can you please tell me what time Msgr. Smith is saying Mass on Sunday?" Then recognizing that it was the pastor himself on the line, she quickly added, "or yourself!!" Msgr. Connors laughed and said, "You can't get out of this so easily Loretta!"

Of course we all have our favorite priests that we enjoy at Mass on Sundays. Here at St. Charles, we are so fortunate to have Msgr. Ed Whalen with us on the weekends and like Msgr. Smith, many people call and want to know the time of his Masses! Also, in the past year, Msgr. Vincent Bartley has been a great help to us, especially on Saturday and Sunday nights. Thank God we have the priests available to assist us in the running of such a large operation as St. Charles parish.

As you are aware, just recently, we have changed the Mass schedule here in the parish. There will no longer be a 7 PM Mass on Saturday night or a 5:30 on Sunday night. Some people are upset at these changes. A very good and devoted parishioner took me aside last Saturday and said, "Father, you have to do a better job in explaining to the people why these changes were necessary." Well in this letter today, I would like to offer an explanation.

Cardinal Timothy Dolan has asked that all pastors look at the Mass schedules in their parishes across the Archdiocese to see if some Masses perhaps could be eliminated. A figure that was set as a "benchmark" was sixty percent. If at a certain Mass the church was not sixty percent filled, it was suggested that those liturgies could be nixed.

Now the reason for this is not to punish the faithful, but we have to consider that there is a shortage of priests. This year the Archdiocese of New York will ordain only five men to the priesthood. We could use ten times that number! Thank God for the services of our international priests - without them, how could we run our parishes?

Taking into account the suggestion of the Cardinal and the Archdiocese and looking at our schedule here at St. Charles, I decided to eliminate the two Masses. It goes "against my grain" to do this because I believe that the people are entitled to our priestly services. However, we also need to use some common sense which at times is not so common!

We will now have seven Masses over the weekend here at St. Charles which I think is a very fair number. Our neighboring parishes at St. Clare's and Our Lady Queen of Peace have seven Masses over the weekend as well. I certainly don't want to hurt St. Charles Parish by these schedule changes. We will study the situation this year and see if this revised Mass schedule will work out to the benefit of all.

As we begin this new year, let us pray through the intercession of St. Charles Borromeo for vocations to the priesthood, for without the priests, there can be no Mass!

Sincerely in Christ,

Fr. Jerome
